A message from Duncan

“How good is life for those who grieve, because they will be comforted.”

Matthew 5.4 (Bible Project Translation)

Who is experiencing the Good Life? Who is at the centre of what God is doing in this world? According to Jesus it is those who are powerless, at the end of themselves with no resources to change things, theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. It is also those who are well acquainted with grief in this world. As we approach the season of Lent this is particularly relevant, for Lent is a time when we allow ourselves to lean into the darkness of our hearts and the darkness of this world. It's not an easy or comfortable time, and is quite out of step with this world. It is also out of step with the Christian culture many of us have come from. Evangelical funerals have often been quite colourful affairs, and I understand why, and am equally pleased to celebrate a life lived for Christ and the certain hope of resurrection, as long as we take time to lean into the tragedy of bereavement as well, of the condition that humanity finds itself in, and that touches our lives in profound ways. Jesus, leads the way in this as he weeps at the graveside of his beloved friend. And it must have been an obvious display of grief as those around him comment, “See how he loved him” (John 11.36). He knew joy was just round the corner but in that moment he leaned into his grief, into the tragedy that there is a “burial shroud that enfolds all peoples, the veil that is spread over all nations” (Isaiah 25.7). He also tells us that those who grieve this tragedy of sin and death amongst the blessed ones who will be comforted.

I know, I'm still trying to work it out myself -Jesus' topsy-turvy kingdom. But this Lent is an opportunity to learn. Homegroups, and specifically formed groups (see below), are invited to learn from the persecuted church how to grieve, how to practise the biblical instinct to lament in God's presence. Ash Wednesday is also an opportunity to take a moment to lean uncomfortably into our mortality and our propensity towards evil and grieve. It will feel even more out of joint this year as the day will be shared by the festival of St.Valentine. But maybe there is something in that. For we do not meditate on these things to despair at the darkness, but to see and welcome the light.

Christ, the Light, be with you all,
Duncan

Collect for the Sunday next before Lent

Almighty Father,
whose Son was revealed in majesty
before he suffered death upon the cross:
give us grace to perceive his glory,
that we may be strengthened to suffer with him
and be changed into his likeness, from glory to glory;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Lent course starting 21st February

Among the Ashes Learning Lament with the persecuted church

This course from Open Doors sits helpfully alongside our journey through the sermon on the mount as we encounter, through the persecuted church, those who have become poor in spirit, those who mourn and are afflicted - and yet taste of the Kingdom of Heaven, often in deep and profound ways. Those who find themselves among the ashes find a lasting hope and comfort. You can find an introductory video here.

We will be running the course over 5 weeks in Lent on Wednesday afternoon (2pm - 3.15pm) and evening (7.30pm - 8pm) starting on 21st February. For more information and to sign up, click here for the afternoon course and here for the evening course.

LENT RESOURCES

The Church of England's Lent Reflections, Watch and Pray invites us to seek God in both familiar and unfamiliar places this Lent: in darkness and in quiet; in movement and migration; in the healing and transforming work of the Spirit; in the weeping of Holy Week and in the joy of Easter morning. You can access these reflections in a variety of ways:

- The Watch and Pray app
- Alexa: tell your smart speaker to "Ask the Church of England for today's Lent reflection"

- The Watch and Pray reflection booklets, available from Church House Publishing. We will also have some copies of the booklet at the back of both churches this Sunday.

To support our journey through the Sermon on the Mount, you may wish to spend time 40 days of Reflecting on the Beatitudes. Bishop Steven Croft produced a booklet a few years ago to help us dwell on this revolutionary vision of Kingdom people. We will have some copies at the back of both churches this Sunday or you can order a booklet/or e-booklet for yourself here.

Pick up a PCC Priorities for 2024 leaflet

How could you get involved?

Following an Away Morning in November, the St Leonard's PCC have agreed priorities for action in 2024. A leaflet is available on this link or you can pick up a copy at the back of church

YOUTH TEAM - WE NEED MORE VOLUNTEERS!

It is a blessing to all of us that our church regularly interacts with many young people in three week night cell groups and on Sundays. We are currently in need to two new helpers to join the team:

1. Someone to assist with the youth activities during the service on the 3rd Sunday of each month. These sessions are for 11-18 year olds and you would be working alongside an experienced team member.

2. Someone to join the team working with a lively group of 7 young people currently in years 7-8 who meet on Wednesdays 7-8.30pm during term time.

You need to be aged 18 -80, with a sense of humour and fun, a passion for God and a willingness to befriend, listen to and share your faith with our youth. All our team are safely recruited and DBS checked.

To find out more or to have a chat about these opportunities please contact Laura Churchyard or Margaret Thornton

Please pray for:

- Dave recovering from a stroke.
- Ben and healing for his mental health.
- Scarlett's recovery from long Covid.
- Katie suffering with epilepsy. Please pray that the right medication be found to control her seizures.

To add names to the prayer list, please contact the Church Office (stleonards_stpeters@btconnect.com) Names will be added to the list by express permission, and only first names will be published.
