A message from Duncan

How good is life for those who show mercy, because they will be shown mercy.

Matthew 3.7 (BibleProject translation)

After our Mothering Sunday diversion, we return to the Beatitudes to consider acts of mercy. In our childhood years we use the word ‘mercy’ to demonstrate our submission to a friend who has us in an inescapable wrestle hold! Perhaps pleading for mercy from a judge when we have been found guilty is a more grown up version! But that is not the idea here! The Hebrew word behind the greek word is “Hesed”. (Its one of the few Hebrew words I actually know along with house [Beth] and bread [lehem]!) You will recognise its frequent use in the Hebrew scriptures by its translation: ‘loving kindness’ or ‘steadfast love’. So ‘mercy’ can be described as generous and overreaching acts of love. It is the kind of love that Jesus said should mark his disciples (John 13.35) because we have experienced this exact kind of loving action from God himself (1 John 4:19). It is also the natural response of the one who, from the previous beatitude, hungers and thirsts after right-relationships in our world. Rather than thinking that our uninfluential and small efforts are fruitless and worth nothing, we add our small acts of loving kindness to God’s great conspiracy to overturn evil with good. It is our little rebellion in our often cynical world. It is our secret and confident demonstration that God’s way of love will win the day. It seems logical to think that the rock will crush the fragile plant, but the reality is that in the fullness of time the plant cracks the rock. As someone once said, love wins.

I celebrate the many ways in which I see this at work in the life of our churches and also realise that most simple and profound acts of mercy remain unseen. So my only encouragement is keep going and don't give up! Though our acts of loving kindness seem insignificant in light of the problems of this world, God's way of love will win the day and we get to join in!

Grace, mercy and peace be with you all,

Duncan

Collect for the fifth Sunday of Lent

Most merciful God, who by the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ delivered and saved the world:
grant that by faith in him who suffered on the cross
we may triumph in the power of his victory;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

The St Leonard's PCC is looking into ways that we can make more use of the land that we have between the church and the Red Lion and one possible way forward might be to make some of it available for gardening. In order to take this forward, we need someone to act as a "Garden Champion", someone with an enthusiasm for gardening, who would be willing to spend a bit of time organising and administering and would be able to act as a link between the PCC and those using the garden plots.

If this is you, or you know of someone who might enjoy doing this, please have a chat with me (Andy Greenwood) or any of the other PCC members.

EASTER SUNDAY LUNCH - SIGN UP NOW!

Easter Day is a joyful time of celebration and this year we will again be sharing lunch together on the church land* after our Easter Celebration Service 12.30 - 2pm

Everyone is welcome, so if you have friends or family staying over Easter please bring them too. There will be slow roasted lamb in burgers, salads and home made puddings to follow. (Veggie and gluten free options will also be available)

Please sign up this week if possible so that we can have an idea of numbers. follow this link for more information or to sign up. (If the internet is not your thing just let Margaret Thornton know you are coming).

If you are able to make a salad or a pudding to share that would be great - please email Margaret Thornton or Ruth Lockwood
